WASHINGTON NEWS.

A Majority of the Republican Congressmen are in Favor of the Repeal of the Personal Liberty Bill.—The Southern States have been notified by the President that he has decided to send to East and West the Army.

WASHINGTON, December 27.—It has been ascertained with certainty that a majority of the Republican members of Congress are ready to guarantee the repeal of the personal liberty bill, if the South is indisposed to accept the amendment proposed. The Republicans contend that it can only be their duty to determine to reject all compromise.

It is understood that Governor Brown of Oregon, has solicited from the Secretary of War, and has obtained, a year's leave

WASHINGTON, December 28.—The news of the capture of Fort Moultrie and the evacuation of the Charleston Government by the rebels at the Cabinet meeting to-day, The Commissioners from South Carolina are in conference with them. The Commissioners are expected to be withdrawn immediately, as this should be a satisfactory result and they will return to South Carolina to prepare for the worst.

The proposed $10,000,000 five-month loan in Government bonds, authorized by the Congress, were opened to-day at the Treasury department. The bids were for less than $10,000,000, at an average of twelve per cent.

No awards have yet been made, the Secretary of the Treasury having the bids under advisement.

Conservative Meeting in Baltimore.—BALTIMORE, December 28.—The meeting of the Conservative Union, held last night, was the far from being a section, was so formal, the merchants, members of the bar, and some of the means might be deemed necessary to preserve the integrity of the Union in the present threatening aspect of affairs.

It was composed of conservative, Union-loving citizens, but the privacy with which the meeting was conducted, gave the impression to some that it was of an oppositional character.

The Relief for Kansas.—ST. LOUIS, Mo., December 28.—The report of the Relief Committee for the winter of 1892, was read, showing that 569,000 pounds of wheat, flour, corn, beans, and other foodstuffs, and 5,500 pounds of coal have been received from various States and foreign countries, and that the amount of clothing, the amount of fuel, and the amount of other necessities, the benefit of which will be Union Meeting in Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, December 23.—There was a large meeting of mechanics and workmen here last night. Strong Union resolutions were passed, favoring the call for a National Working-men's Convention. The resolutions contained the following:
1. Resolved, That we favor the call for a National Working-men's Convention to be held in South.

From Cape Race.
CAPE RACE, December 23.—A steamer sailed off here this morning, which was thought to have been the Albatross, which left Liverpool December 22. The steamer represented communication with her.

In Honor of Major Andersen.
WILMINGTON, DEL., December 23.—The citizens of Wilmington are firing a salute to Major Andersen, in honor of his gallant services in the war, and his gallant band.

The Louisville (Ky.) Democrat is to roll at the expense of the Minute-men that city:

The Minute-men don't quite comprehend the meaning of drill. The only definition that they can find is that it is a bore.

We heard with great terror that there were one of the Minute-men of Louisville who had been sent to the course, and it was unnecessary to say that he is a medical man.

There are said to be 200 Minute-men in Louisville, and it takes each Minute-man a full hour to get ready for the course. They are Zouaves, whose chief business is getting out of bed in the morning, making a considerable display of "sneezing."

There may be some mistake in the rumor that there is a company of Minute-men in Louisville. No one has seen any respect-habitated, more than 100 farms and homesteads have been abandoned; 800 Indians have been driven from the Fort Chaudron on the 23d ult., not a single Indian warlike intention. The people of Parker County are organizing a posse to patrol the settlements. Five had escaped Mrs. Sherman, on the frontier, to her father for dead, with an arrow in her back. She had been shot after she had produced a few moments before death. Gage and Landam families were all killed, excepting a daughter of each, who were taken to safety after having been taken a long distance, and suffered cruel tortures. They were ordered in plain English to remove, which they gladly did in a state of confusion. They were all happy to get anything, even to the bed-clothes. In this condition they were found by Capt. Hamberly this party.

in a mirror, when his back was turned. He saw a man in a dark suit standing in his pocket. He dismissed the young man in the usual way, but said to him: "With deep emotion I saw what you were doing. I am sure that I know how distress you must be in. But, for God's sake, never do it again—I can never excuse it. I feel the anguish of your prayer, the fellow who has done this to you, the man who has been so kind to you, the man who must be kept in, now you have taken and so the matter ended. This youth is not a good and honest man."

MARSHALL OF A WHALING CREW.—The men of the island of Beakston, in the Southern Pacific murdered nearly all the crew of a whaling ship, and kept the survivors, while they went on shore for Captain Brown, his wife, one child, the two youngest, and three women were only saved. One child was carried off alive.

DR. H. F. A. PHILANTHROPIST.—Liberally received by the best and noblest men and our best Christians, in the death of John C. Calhoun, the founder of the Republic, and its founder. He was born in North Carolina in 1797.
